ANHP thanks the Province on Ontario for critical PPE

The All Nations Health Partners (ANHP) is a diverse coalition of municipal, Indigenous and health system leaders who have combined forces to support and prepare our communities for the COVID-19 Pandemic.

The ANHP would like to extend their sincere gratitude to the Province of Ontario, the Honourable Minister Elliot, Minister of Health and the Honourable Greg Rickford, MPP for the Kenora-Rainy River District for ensuring that Kenora and its surrounding communities are adequately supplied with Personal Protection Equipment (PPE).

“Ensuring the safety of frontline workers is a fundamental priority of the ANHP’s planning and response to the COVID-19 Pandemic. We are thankful to the Province and Minister Rickford for the delivery of the PPE and supplies as it will help safely sustain vital supports and services in the Kenora area,” says Henry Wall, Chief Administrative Officer, Kenora District Services Board.

In March 2020, the ANHP made a request to the Ministry of Health for PPE and supplies to keep frontline workers and First Nation communities safe in the Kenora area during the COVID-19 Pandemic.

“Now more than ever, frontline workers are dependent on basic infection and control measures to prevent the spread of infection. We are appreciative of the Province and Minister Elliot for the successful delivery of these crucial supplies and their commitment to ensuring the Kenora area can safely offer health care services,” says Joe Barnes, Executive Director of Kenora Chiefs Advisory.

The All Nations Health Partners will be working together with Minister Rickford to coordinate the distribution of PPE supplies to partner agencies and First Nations communities this week.
